Happening Today! ☺
Altoona Middle School Cross Country Team on
Relay Mission to Marshfield Clinic Cancer Center

The Altoona Middle School Cross Country Team is generously on the move!

The students raised $300 to purchase fabric, which soon became blankets that are being donated to the Marshfield Clinic CLIMB program TODAY!

The team relay stretches 4.5 miles from the front of the middle school to the Marshfield Cancer Center. Under the direction of their coaches, students will depart from AMS at 3:45 pm. Their ETA at the Cancer Center is 4:45 pm.

Direct contacts for this event are AMS cross country team coaches Brooke Kaldor, Rachael Stilp & Shalyn Gagnon, 715-839-6030.

- Climb is a Marshfield Clinic program that helps kids find the courage to deal with cancer in their families.
